Sir,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that the sculptured carvings on the outsides of Bhumakeswaswamy's temple at Belur have been obliterated by repeated oil or Bhuman wash in past years They require to be thoroughly scraped out and cleaned with proper instruments by skilled men. I beg therefore that you will kindly place at my disposal a sum of rupees three hundred for employing competent agency to accomplish the above work. The account I may be authorized to draw a credit of the Treasurer, which is sufficient.

2. During the visit of His Highness to the Mahratta Jahr in Belum, the state of the above buildings attracted the attention of His Highness and His Highness was pleased to command that the above work should be carried out. I find no progress has been made in this.
I was away on Sick leave and the matter has been not sufficiently attended to.

I have the honor to be
